

I am against any government interference with the programing that is offered by satellite radio. This is a service that I am willing to pay for and is not supplied with any where near the quality by the regular radio stations.